

Facts About...

DUTCH FAMILY DELI OIL SPILL (MD-469)

---

Site Location

The Dutch Family Deli was a rest stop located near the intersection of U.S. 301 and Route 291 in Millington, Kent County, MD 21651. The site is located just north of the Chester River. The land use in the area is primarily agricultural and residential, although there are several commercial properties in close proximity to the site.

Site History

An anonymous complaint of an oil spill at the facility led to the site discovery in February 1994.

Environmental Investigations

According to the EPA, a Removal Assessment was conducted on March 1, 1994. There are no records of this assessment. On October 25, 1994, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency conducted a Preliminary Assessment (PA) of the site. This PA is not on file at MDE's at Site Assessment Section. The site was listed as being archived on the same day in EPA's Superfund database.

Current Status

The site has been archived by EPA, and MDE's Site Assessment Section has placed the site on its "Formerly Investigated Sites" list.

Contact

For additional information, please contact MDE's Oil Control Program.

| Last Update: November 2010

