

Anti Aircraft Artillery Site Census Bureau
Prince George's County, Maryland

Site Location

The Anti Aircraft Artillery (AAA) Site, Census Bureau, can be found in Prince George's County, Maryland. It is located adjacent to Silver Hill Road in Suitland and is part of the Suitland Federal Center.

Site History

On October 16th 1952, the U.S. Government acquired 7.57 acres from the General Services Administration (GSA) by Use Permit. Between 1952 and 1959, the Department of the Army (DOA) used the property in connection with field training exercises of the 35th Anti Aircraft Artillery Brigade of the Second Army. The DOA did not install any improvements at the site during the period of DOA use. In September 1959, the DOA terminated the Use Permit and the property reverted back to GSA. Currently, the property is owned by GSA, and is part of the Suitland Federal Center. The property is used by the Census Bureau who has installed a parking lot and small exercise area for employees.

Environmental Investigations

An Inventory Project Report (INPR) was performed in 1992. It concluded that no evidence of existing or potential environmental contamination or safety hazards, attributable to past Department of Defense operations, were present.

Current Status

None to report.
